Club will, November 12 and 13, present the play, "The Merry Cobbler," at the Opera House, under the direction of A.
D. Montier.
The cast of characters is: Frank von Altenheim, a light-hearted cobbler, Harry Fleischmann; Morris Holmes, an adventurer, E. J. Fleming; Col. Derrom, a leading lawyer, David E. Robey; I. L.
Flinthen, a detective, J. Fred Birrell; Levee Bob, a bad nigger, F. W. Smith; Mike Maloney, a handsome police officer, Thomas Chauncey; Stella Derrom, the colonel's daughter, Miss Ida Breen; Mrs. Rafferty, a poor lone "widdy woman," Mrs. A. D. Montier; Mrs. Holmes, an ill-used wife and mother, Mrs. A. D.
Montier; Rosalie, the banana girl, Miss Catherine Birrell; Charlotte, Stella's bosom friend, Miss Marie Fannon; Little friends of the cobbler, Jimmie Jones, Alvin Friedlander; Lelia, Caroline West; Flossie, Amelia Schlichting; Edna, Elizabeth McArthur; Toddlie, Helen Morris.

Special services in celebration of All Saints' day were held in St. Mary's Catholic church this morning at 6 and at 8:30 o'clock. Tomorrow services in commemoration of All Souls' day will be held.

The funeral of Mrs. Norman Curtis was held from Grace Protestant Episcopal Church this morning, the Rev. Edgar Carpenter officiating.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Eva M. Nalls and Arthur L. Lloyd, both of this city. The ceremony took place at the rectory of Grace Protestant Episcopal Church last Wednesday evening, and was performed by the Rev. Edgar Carpenter.

The clerk of the court, during the month of October issued forty-five marriage licenses. Of these twenty-eight were to white and seventeen to colored couples. During the same length of time he recorded thirty-nine deaths.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING.
Burgess Johnson gave bond of $200 today in the Police Court. He was charged with having embezzled $2.18 from his employer, William A. Yates.
William W. Stewart qualified as his surety.

MRS. AND MISS ELKINS
LEAVE THIS AFTERNOON;
RETURN IN DECEMBER

MISS KATHERINE ELKINS, Daughter of the Senator From West Virginia and Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins.

Miss Katherine Elkins and her mother, Mrs. Elkins, left Washington this afternoon at 3 o'clock for their home, "Hallehurst," at Elkins, W. Va. They have been traveling in Europe all summer, and only returned to their home on K street Wednesday evening.

From the time of their landing in this country Miss Elkins and her mother have been kept busy denying the reports of Miss Elkins' engagement to the Duke of the Abruzzi, who visited here last spring in command of the Italian squadron ordered to the Jamestown Exposition. Immediately upon landing at the pier in New York Miss Elkins was greeted with the request to deny or affirm the rumor.

In her confusion at such an unexpected question, Miss Elkins replied that she did not even know the duke. Since arriving in Washington, however, Miss Elkins has explained that she should have said that she did not know the duke well enough to give the slightest foundation to such a rumor. They are, of course, acquainted, and in fact, a warm friendship exists between the duke and Miss Elkins and her parents.

ALBERT A. WILSON
GAVE WIDOW ALL

Former Assistant Assessor Left Estate Valued at $75,000.

The will of Albert A. Wilson, former assistant assessor of the District of Columbia government and at one time United States marshal, was filed for probate today. The entire estate, valued at something like $75,000, is left to the widow, Mrs. Mary Ann Virginia Wilson, of this city. The will is dated October 10, 1887, at which time Mr. Wilson was United States marshal for the District of Columbia. It is witnessed by W. B. Robison, then deputy marshal; Dorsey Clagett, former registrar of wills, and Robert Willard, late clerk of the District Court of Appeals.
Mrs. Wilson was named as executrix, but declined to serve, petitioning the court for the appointment of Allan E.
Walker as administrator, which was done by the court; the heirs-at-law, Charles L. Wilson, of New York; W. J.
Wilson, of this city, and Mrs. Marian V. Binneman, brothers and sister of testator, approving the appointment.
A codicil to the will, dated August 1, 1893, provided that in the event of the death of the wife prior to that of the testator, the property shall go to Mary E. Wilson, an adopted daughter.
The estate amounted to about $50,000 in real estate and $25,000 in stocks and bonds.

AGED WOMAN FOUND
WANDERING ON STREET

Mrs. Mary E. Allen, eighty-two years of age, of Clifton, Clarke county, Va., was found by the police of the Seventh precinct last night near Thirty-sixth and Prospect streets wandering about aimlessly. She was cared for by the police last night, and today the Rev.
James H. W. Blake, pastor of Christ's Church, Thirty-first and O streets, took her in charge.
The Rev. Mr. Blake will endeavor to communicate with her relatives today in order that she may be sent home.

ANGRY WOMEN TAR
SIX TOWN DRUNKARDS

RAYARD, Iowa, Nov. 1.—Finding that the officials were slow to act, a Law and Order League, composed of women and girls, tarred and feathered six drunken men who were on the streets at night. A bitter prohibition fight was organized to enforce the law. An ultimatum was issued that tar would be applied to all common drunkards, and six were picked up, paraded through the streets, and then tarred and feathered.
Last week the league tarred a man as a warning, but it had no effect, and so a wholesale crusade was started.

BRIDEGROOM EIGHTY-FOUR;
BRIDE JUST FIFTY-TWO

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—John J. Fields, of Hackettstown, N. J., married yesterday Miss Ariane Snyder, of Brooklyn.
He is eighty-four years old and Mrs.
Fields is fifty-two.
Miss Snyder was visiting friends on Schooley's mountain a few months ago and was thrown from a carriage in a runaway. Her ankle was broken. She was carried to the home of Mr. Fields, where she remained until she was able to be about. An old friendship between her and Mr. Fields was renewed during this period and resulted in an engagement, which was not announced before the wedding.

ANOTHER OPERATION
ON JOHN MITCHELL

LA SALLE, Ill., Nov. 1.—John Mitchell, president of the National Miners' Federation, last night underwent another operation.
An abscess which had formed since the recent appendicitis operation was removed.
His condition was as good as could be expected this morning and no serious results are expected.

ONLY SEPOY VETERAN.
The only survivor of the Sepoy mutiny in India, half a century ago, now living in this country is P. J. Quealy, an employee in the postoffice at Omaha.

PARKER, BRIDGET & CO. Pa. Avenue and Ninth Street

PARKER-BRIDGET DISTINCTIVE Suits and Overcoats

IF WE produced no better clothing than others there would be no advantage to you in buying here. But we come to you with garments possessed of all the attributes of the highest class of merchant tailoring—designed along the most advanced lines—made by the most skilled tailors, every man of whom is an expert in his line, while over all, supervising each minute detail, presides an expert who sees to it that our requirements are fulfilled—assuring material and artistic superiority in matchless combination.

If you elect to pay but $15 for a Suit, Overcoat or Raincoat it will be the best $15 worth you ever bought. While if your inclination rises to the height of our finest grades at $45 and $50, your investment is for the best that can be produced.

$20

Fifteen dollars is a popular price—and it's enough of a price for us to show about 25 distinct patterns in the new long single and double-breasted models; enough of a price to have us incorporate factors of fine tailoring, fine fabrics, and fine trimmings. Garments made to your personal measure can't satisfy any better—and suits offered elsewhere at $20 in most instances are not comparable.

Eighteen dollars sees the variety widen and the values increase in wonderful ratio to the price. The tailoring is the evidence of master workmanship; the style and character are the fruits of high art cutting and designing. In every detail of these suits, in every line are points of merit to be found only in the product of the superior custom tailor.

At twenty dollars an unprecedented showing—an unequalled assortment. The best suits that have ever been produced to sell under $25 are these. The materials are the product of famous English looms, and in many instances the best produced in America—the swellest and most dignified patterns. We ask you to study the details of these garments, for in them lies the secret of superiority. A perfect fit is assured, no matter what your size.

BOYS' SUITS, REEFERS $5.00 and OVERCOATS

Different in every respect—exclusive in style—of a better intrinsic value—for we pay attention to those details essential to strength and service—and lower in price by comparison.

THE SUITS comprise all styles for Boys from 3 to 17 years—double-breasted, Norfolk Blouse and Russian effects—of elegant all-wool woven chevrons and cassimeres, in mixtures, checks and plaids; also the celebrated "Hercules" rainproof suits, which are really rainproof and guaranteed so.
We see these same values priced elsewhere at $6.98 to $7.50.

THE OVERCOATS comprise the long swagger style and the Reefers in sizes 2 1/2 to 17 years, of every good fabric that is adapted for this class of garment. It is the largest variety we have ever shown, and you know that means it is the largest in this city.
Comparison will convince you that values such as these are $7.50 elsewhere.

$3.95 for Boys' Suits, in double-breasted Norfolk Blouse and Russian styles, in sizes 3 to 17 years, of woven chevrons and cassimeres, in mixtures, checks and plaids, with knickerbocker pants—suits which you cannot match under $5 elsewhere.

$8.50 for golf red Juvenile Overcoats—the "button-to-the-neck" styles—lined with flannel—as fashionable for a girl as a boy of the juvenile age—the same garments for which is ordinarily asked $10.95.

Boys' all-wool and worsted Sweaters, in all sizes and colors, at $1.00 to $3.00.
"Teck" Shoes for the little fellows and their older brothers, $1.75 to $3.50.
Hats and Caps of every style beginning with golf caps at 50c.
